A Dreamer's Melody

In making this film, the filmmaker chose to tell the story entirely from the point of view of the character's feet. What are all the things we learned about the main character, just from seeing her feet and legs?

The Bicycle Thief

In this film, we learn that in the real world it can sometimes be hard to tell who is behaving well and who is behaving badly. Is the main character a bad person, a good person, or perhaps a mix?

All in Good Time

Imagine if you were alive 100 years ago. How would your life be different? How would it be the same?

Like Playing

In this film, Bruno, Claudio, and Carlitos have an excellent adventure. Imagine your best day ever. What would you be doing? Who would be with you?

Apples and Oranges

In this short, a relationship runs into problems when friends see what they posted on social media about the other. When you talk to friends and family on social media, how do you talk differently? Has this ever caused your own problems?
